

Systems of a school culture

The following systems are expressed in programs (policies, procedures, resources & budgets), codes, lists and schedules. They are not exhaustive.

Systems

People	Curriculum	Learning & teaching	Support	Environment
Allocation of duties	Arts – graphic & performing	Access to resources	Gifted and talented provision	Accessibility
Attendance, lateness & absences	Environment	Approaches to learning	Learning intervention & support	Assets management
Behaviour management	Humanities	Approaches to teaching	Social competencies	Buildings schedule
Codes of conduct/ethics	Languages	Assessment & reporting	Special needs provision	Contract specifications
Communications	Mathematics	Before & after class provision	Student welfare & protection	Emergency responses
Community relations	Personal & social development	Class sizes & organisation	Transition & orientation	Furniture & fittings
Customer service	Physical development	Focus days	Health & wellbeing	Grounds
Dress codes	Philosophy, thinking and spirituality	Homework	Injury/sickness response	Aesthetics
Duty of care	Science, technology & engineering	Quality assurance	Medical checks	Equipment
Governance structure/roles	Society	Subject time allocations	Medical alerts	Student allocation
Inclusivity & diversity		Schedules/timetables	Managing medication	Information systems & access
Industrial issues		Overnight & day excursions	Communicable diseases	Infrastructure
Meeting schedules		Planning – curriculum delivery	Counselling	Maintenance & cleaning
Organisational structure			Use of external providers	Occupational health
Parental Involvement			Specialists	Record keeping & access
Performance & development			Entertainment	Resource allocation
Staff association			Community resources	Room allocations
Staffing profile & projections			Finances	Safety
Student assemblies			Marketing	Security & access
Student enrolment				Signage
Student placement				Supply acquisition
Student promotion				Traffic management
Student representation				Vehicles
Teacher/staff recruitment				Waste disposal