

Testimonials

“This is an excellent handbook for the new or aspiring Principal because it takes the reader through both the basic tasks that must be performed and provides a guide to the most effective way of approaching them. It gives step-by-step advice on how to create the well-oiled structures that make any organisation work ... “

Professor Vin Massaro - LH Martin Institute for Tertiary Education Leadership and Management, Melbourne Graduate School of Education, University of Melbourne

“The insights from an exemplary school leader like Greg Flattley offer invaluable support for new and aspiring Principals preparing for and enacting this most important of school roles ... “

Dr. Paul Molyneux - Melbourne Graduate School of Education, University of Melbourne

“At last, a practical compendium for Principals! How I wish, especially in my early years as a school head, that I had some easy-to-check document that mapped out for me the key areas, ideas and activities of principalship ... “
